Mr. George Bush
CIA
Washington, D.C. 20005

Dear Mr. Ball -

I am waiting for the Federal Government to hire me, first as a GS 7-9 Computer Programmer Analyst, then as an official elected representative of the people, then as an appointee to the UN. Since there are currently no GS 7/9 positions open in the Philadelphia area, I may have to move either to Washington, D.C., Boston, Virginia, Storm, Conn., or Pittsburgh. While I am waiting for the Wheels of Washington to move, may I please offer to do some work for the CIA, either on a paid or voluntary basis? Would you be so kind as to send me my last contacts directly ?

Awaiting your Reply,

Don't Ever Talk To A Psychiatrist

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Scotty is one of those rare birds—a native-born New Yorker. As she says, she is “Brooklyn-born, bred, and briefed,” as evidenced by her schooling: P.S. 152 (Brooklyn); JHS 240 (Brooklyn); Midwood High School (Brooklyn); and college, of course, in Brooklyn, where she secured her B.A. in psychology and math.

She has worked as a secretary, and administrative assistant, a computer specialist, and in advertising sales, and has some very definite ideas and thoughts on the subject of her book. Scotty’s wit is quite visible, and she certainly has a unique way of turning a phrase, which is a prime requisite of a writer and of any good book.

Among other things, Scotty enjoys music, the theater, the movies, good literature and gourmet food, not necessarily in that particular order. Among her philosophies is this: “Life is for living; living is for learning; therefore life is for learning.”

Scotty now lives in a large city in Pennsylvania.
